In addition to the school regular diagnostic exams, students are required to take placement tests in Arabic, Religion and Social studies (based on Grade level) as per the MOE guidelines. If a student is attending Arabic Program approved by an Egyptian Embassy , the above MOE assessments will not be required	N/A	Applicants who are nationals of Arabic speaking countries:
		The same regulations as for Egyptians applying from a school outside Egypt apply. Exemption is possible based on MOE approval – this may be explained by the admissions office staff.
		Applicants who are nationals of non-Arabic speaking countries:
		All may get exemption from studying Arabic. Students may also wish to study Arabic as a Foreign and not sit the MOE exams. For students who wish to take ministry exams, the same regulations as for Egyptians applying from a school outside Egypt apply.
